NINA GIGLIO JOINS PERKINS EASTMAN AS SPECIFICATIONS MANAGER AND SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Brings More than 20 Years of Experience in Technical Production for a Variety of Project Types and Delivery Methods

New York, NY (September 30, 2014) Top international design and architecture firm Perkins Eastman is pleased to announce that Nina Giglio FCSI, CCS, LEED AP has joined as Specifications Manager. Based in the firm's Charlotte, NC office, Giglio will lead the firm's specifications group while also serving as a firm-wide resource for the development and review of written construction documents for a wide variety of project types and delivery methods across the firm's domestic offices. Giglio joins most recently from Hall Building Information Group in Charlotte, where she served as President from 2007 to 2014. She presents regularly at conferences and has contributed to several technical manuals published by John Wiley & Sons.

President and COO J. David Hogle FAIA says of Giglio, "Nina brings expertise that will enable Perkins Eastman to increase its reach and proficiency in delivering consistent and controlled CD documentation."

Giglio received her Bachelor of Architecture from Texas Tech University and is a Certified Construction Specifier (CCS) and LEED AP BD+C. She is a Fellow in the Construction Specification Institute and affiliated with the American Institute of Architects and Specifications Consultants in Independent Practice. In addition to her professional involvement, Giglio supports the American Heart Association Circle of Red.
